Everything you need to do before you cruise.

NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE
PRESTYLE CRUISING

Welcome to My NCL

Once you've booked your cruise, log in to "My NCL," and get ready for Freestyle Cruising®, where you're free to... whatever.

You'll need to create a "My NCL" account, if you don't already have one. Booked your cruise via phone or travel agent? Find the box for New Users and click "Create an Account".

You'll be asked a series of questions -- whether or not you have a cruise booked, or you've sailed before, etc. Follow the guided instructions to complete the form. Once you've created the account, your reservation and profile info will be accessible every time you log in to My NCL.

If we can't locate your reservation, just call your booking agent or NCL's Automation Support Desk at 1.866.625.1160.

Click on Log In to My NCL

Or enter User Name & Password

Click Create An Account button

3 easy steps before you board...

My NCL - My Reservations

Once you've logged in to My NCL, you should see a summary of each cruise you have booked and a row of buttons that indicate your status of completion.

Click "View Details" to expand your Vacation and Pricing Summary and your Payment Schedule details.

Click on buttons 1, 2 & 3 to follow the recommended steps to complete your pre-boarding requirements:

1. Complete your Online Check-In
2. Make a Payment
3. Download your eDocs

Shore Excursions sell out fast!

Don't forget to book these in advance too! The 4th button to the right allows you to pre-book Shore Excursions.

Online Check-In

Formerly known as Advance Guest Registration...

My NCL - Step 1: Online Check-In

Use the name tabs for each guest to enter personal, contact and citizenship information. When you complete the Online Check-In for each guest, you should be able to download eDocs for your entire reservation. Think of eDocs as your boarding pass to the ship.

In some cases, your eDocs may not be ready yet. That's OK, don't panic. Log In to My NCL at a later time, when it's closer to your sail date.

eDocs will be ready when:

- all of your air arrangements are finalized
- you're closer to your sailing date (at least 60 days prior)

Thanks for completing your Online Check-In in advance.

Make Payment

My NCL - Step 2: Pay for Cruise

If this step is still “Incomplete”, click the “Make Payment” button to make your final payment. Your cruise needs to be paid in full in order to download eDocs. You can also call your booking agent or call NCL at 800.327.7030 to apply payment to your reservation.

Please note: Once you’ve submitted your payment online, it could take 24-48 hours for your eDocs to become available.

Your Tickets to Do as You Please.

eDocs - Cruise Ticket

These are your tickets; including the details of your trip, such as the city you'll be flying from.

Here's an extra surprise—bet you didn't know that everyone who purchases an NCL cruise gets their own free email address for use while on board.

All our ships are equipped with 24-hour Internet Cafés. Give your friends and family back home your personalized email address and stay in touch throughout your cruise.

Wireless Internet is also available throughout NCL's entire fleet. Follow the guided instructions on your laptop, or visit the Internet Café manager if you have trouble gaining access.

(Service charges apply)

The screenshot displays a web browser window titled "Booking Summary and Important Voyage Information" for NCL Cruise Ticket. It shows details for two passengers: HENRY FINCH and RENEE FINCH. The cruise email address for both is highlighted with a yellow oval and an arrow pointing from the text above: HFinch108239681@PRIDEHAWAII.cruisemail.net. Other details include ticket dates (05/29/2007 and 01/10/2007), embarkation destinations (HNL/HNL), cabin (11512), and dining (FREESTYLE). An important notice is also visible at the bottom of each ticket section.

eDocs - E-Ticket Itinerary Confirmation

If you've booked your flight through NCL, this is where we list your flight arrangements... a/k/a E-Tickets.

(We refer to our cruise tickets as eDocs and airlines refer to their tickets as E-Tickets.)

Please note that one E-Ticket is issued per reservation. The names of all guests booked on the flight will appear on the E-Ticket Itinerary Confirmation.

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Booking Summary and Important Voyage Information" with the NCL logo and "E-Ticket Itinerary Confirmation" header. It displays two separate passenger records. Each record includes passenger details (Name, Ship, Res No), flight dates, and a "Ticked Itinerary Information" table with columns for date, airline/flight, departure, arrival, and airport. The first passenger is Henry Finch, sailing on the Pride of Hawaii on 6/25/2007. The second passenger is Renee Finch, sailing on the same ship on June 24, 2007. Both records show flights on United Airlines (FLT 1101 and FLT 1) between Toronto-Pearson Airport, Chicago O'Hare, IL, and Honolulu, HI. The page also includes "Endorsements" and a disclaimer about electronic tickets.

Endorsements:
Non-Endorsable/Refund Cruise Line Only

For your convenience, Norwegian Cruise Line has arranged electronic tickets for you with your airlines. This confirmation acts as your electronic ticket receipt. If a paper ticket is required, it will be included with these documents.

All guests must have a government-issued photo ID available at all times while in the airport. You will need airline issued boarding passes to clear security check points. Check with your individual airline for procedures on obtaining boarding passes. If travelling outside the United States, please make sure you have proper travel documentation in order to receive your boarding passes. Check with your consulate for the latest updates.

There's No Mistaking Your Bags Now.

eDocs - Luggage Tag

As an added convenience, we're including electronic versions of luggage tags in our eDocs. You'll need to add your name and address to each luggage tag before placing on your bags. Use these if you booked your cruise less than 21 days before your sailing date, or misplaced the ones sent in your Welcome Aboard Brochure.

eDocs - NCL Guest Ticket Contract

What vacation's complete without the fine print?
It's pretty dry, but still important to read the terms and conditions included in your eDocs before sailing.

The image shows a screenshot of a web browser displaying the "NCL Guest Ticket Contract". The page title is "Booking Summary and Important Voyage Information". The NCL logo is visible in the top left corner. The main heading is "NCL Guest Ticket Contract". Below this, there is a section titled "IMPORTANT NOTICE" which states: "Guests are advised to carefully read the terms and conditions of the Guest Ticket Contract set forth below which affect their legal rights and are binding. Acceptance or use of the Contract and conclusion of the agreement of Guest to these Terms and Conditions." Below this is the "IMPORTANT NOTICE LINE" and "Guest Ticket Contract" heading. The document is divided into numbered sections: 1. Definitions, 2. The Contract, 3. Terms of Fare, and 4. Carrier's Rules and Regulations. Section 1, "Definitions", states: "This Contract is between the Carrier and the Guest. The word 'Carrier' means NCL (Bahamas) Ltd. d/b/a NCL and/or NCL America, its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, assigns, as well as the named vessel or substitute vessel, including its master and crew. The 'Guest' is each person whose name appears on the face of the ticket and/or who uses the ticket for passage on the voyage described in the ticket, and includes any accompanying minors, and any of their heirs, successors, assigns or representatives." Section 2, "The Contract", states: "The Guest agrees that this Contract governs the relationship between the Guest and the Carrier, regardless of the Guest's age, whether the Guest purchased the ticket on his or her own behalf, and/or whether the ticket has been held and/or presented by another person on behalf of the Guest. The Guest agrees that this Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Guest and Carrier, to the exclusion of any other representations that may have been made in relation to the cruise to the Guest or anyone representing another by email, including but not limited to or the Carrier's brochures, advertisements, and other promotional materials, or by third persons such as travel agents. No person other than the personal names on the ticket Contract can use the Guest Contract without the express written agreement of the Carrier. This Contract is only valid for the cruise specified in the accompanying ticket. The Guest agrees to the terms herein upon payment of, or the receipt, upon presenting this Contract to the Carrier for boarding. The rights, benefits, privileges and limitations of having sea ports never shall accrue in the benefit of the Carrier and/or companies, independent contractors or other advice providers, and affiliated or related companies, parents, subsidiaries, successors, assigns or Third Party service entities, or subsidiaries, affiliates, companies, parent manufacturers, and to or their heirs, successors, managers, officers, agents, assigns, officers, crew and employees." Section 3, "Terms of Fare", states: "The fare paid by the Guest for this ticket includes transportation on the vessel named herein, full board, and auxiliary child's food, but does not include taxes, tips, gratuities, or other charges, or other charges or expenses incurred for other incidents or services such as shore excursions. The fare does not include taxes and fees imposed by governmental or quasi-governmental authorities, or governmental or quasi-governmental action outside of the payment of such taxes and fees exceeding the amounts used by Carrier for purposes of computing the ticket amount. Carrier reserves the right to pass through the extra amount. The Guest agrees that the Carrier shall not be liable to refund any portion of the ticket for tickets that are wholly or partially unused by the Guest except as otherwise expressly stated in this Contract, any law or government regulation to the contrary notwithstanding. Refunds shall be made as specified herein and in the transportation policy section of the Terms and Conditions of the cruise brochure, which policy is incorporated herein by reference. Carrier's crew is compensated by a combination of salary and incentive programs that are funded in part by the service charge paid by each Guest. The charge is intended to reward service provided to all departments and job categories and is distributed to employees according to Carrier's evaluation of job performance. A portion of the service charge (collected by Carrier) is also used for fleet-wide on-board programs. For those cruises a fixed service charge of $10 per person per day will be added to your onboard account. For cruises age 3-12, a $6 per person per day charge will be added to your onboard account. There is no charge for children under the age of three." Section 4, "Carrier's Rules and Regulations", contains sub-sections: (a) Guest's Agreement, (b) Carrier's Right to Confine, or Refuse or Revoke Passage, and (c) Guests under 21.
